

scnA and SMA announce partnership for Ontario

Windsor, Ontario 19. Nov. 2009 - scn energy America Inc., the Windsor based specialist for solar photovoltaic solutions and SMA Solar Technology AG, the world's largest producer of solar inverters are proud to announce the start of their partnership for Ontario. "With this relation we bridge one of the last gaps in our PV-portfolio" explains Klaus Dohring, scnA's representative for North America. He is also the founder of Green Sun Rising, a Canadian company offering solar thermal systems. "Together with SMA, scnA and Green Sun Rising are able to offer our customers integrated solar solutions for their individual needs for both solar-PV as well as solar thermal systems", emphasizes Klaus Dohring.

Both scnA and Green Sun Rising are co-located under the umbrella of the Renewable Energy Technology Center in Windsor, 1680 Kildare Road. The RET-Center provides information, seminars and special workshops about renewable energy technologies and applications.

The next General Awareness Workshop about renewable energy and solar technology is on Saturday, November 21 in the dedicated training area of the RET-Center. Interested participants should register in advance. Phone number 519-946-0408 or visit the website www.RET-Center.com
